H. B. No. 38, An Act amending Article 494a, Vernon's Code of Criminal Procedure, increasing attorney fees for representation of indigents accused of felony offenses; providing that attorney fees may be paid; providing for fees on pleas of guilty; repealing all laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith; expressly repealing Section 1A of Chapter 10, page 25, Acts of the Fifty-second Legislature known as Section 1A of Article 494a, Vernon's Code of Criminal Procedure.

Senate Resolution 65

Senator Krueger offered the following resolution:

Whereas, Young men from every nook and corner of the great State of Texas will assemble July 15, 16 and 17 at Austin's Municipal Auditorium to conduct the 31st Annual Future Farmers of America State Convention for 1959; and

Whereas, These worthy young men are in session to elect their state officers and to honor those who have by their diligence, devotion and hard work attained results properly calling for official recognition; and

Whereas, The Future Farmers of America is an organization dedicated to the perpetuation of progress in agriculture, composed of young men who know both the joys and discomforts of farm life, sincerely believing—with a faith born more of deeds than of words—in the future of this way of life, and continuously striving to attain better days through better ways; and

Whereas, Future Farmers now attending their State Convention have consistently been leaders in their fine organization and in their communities and will be the future leaders of this State and Nation; and

Whereas, Today's Future Farmers will largely be tomorrow's agriculture; and

Whereas, Although confronted with many problems, these young men are doing a highly commendable job in dealing with the vital task assigned them; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, By the Senate of The State of Texas, that official recognition be extended to those attending this Convention; and that the heartiest congratulations of this Body go out for the fine work the Future Farmers of America are now doing; and, be it further

Resolved, That the Senate go on record as sincerely and emphatically urging each member of the Future Farmers to continue to maintain the high standards which have become synonymous with the name "Future Farmers of America"; that success may come to each member in any and all of the worthwhile projects they might undertake; and be it further

Resolved, That these young men be extended an invitation to visit their Capitol in order to observe first-hand the workings of their State Government; and, be it further

Resolved, That copies of this Resolution be forwarded to all State officers of the Future Farmers of America organization in Texas, to the advisor of each Chapter represented at this year's Convention, and to Texas Agriculture.

In Memory of
Mrs. Bebe Amacker

Senator Rogers offered the following resolution:

(Senate Resolution 67)

Whereas, In the passing of Mrs. Bebe Amacker on the 26th of May, 1959, Amarillo and the entire Golden Spread suffered the loss of one of its best known and best loved citizens; and

Whereas, Mrs. Amacker was born in the Indian Territory and was married in 1914 to C. H. Amacker in Wheeler, Texas; and

Whereas, In 1931, after the death of her husband, Mrs. Amacker found it necessary to earn her livelihood and took over the management of the Panhandle Automobile Club, a small and debt-ridden organization of 400 members, at a salary of $50 per month, providing she could collect that amount in dues during the month; and

Whereas, All the courage and intelligence and spirit of this charming and determined lady was translated into making a success of this enterprise and as a result, the Panhandle Automobile Club has now expanded into two other states, and is a financially strong organization with more than 6,000 members; and

Whereas, In recognition of her fine service in this field to the people of the Panhandle and surrounding areas, in 1958 the American Automobile Association, an affiliate of the Panhandle Automobile Club, chose Mrs. Amacker as one of twenty-five managers in the United States to go to Europe to make a study with the view towards negotiating an affiliation between the American Automobile Association and the various European automobile clubs; and

Whereas, This fine lady was an active member and devoted worker in the St. Andrew's Episcopal Church of Amarillo and spent much time working with and for her church; and

Whereas, Mrs. Amacker was a person of great energy and talent and a favorite with all with whom she came in contact, being never too busy to go out of her way to do a favor; and

Whereas, Mrs. Amacker provided inspiration to those of her fellow citizens who needed encouragement and help and contributed much individual time and substance to others; and

Whereas, She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Morris Higley of Childress; two sisters, Mrs. Angus Parton of Pampa and Mrs. D. A. Hunt of Amarillo; two brothers, Ben Breeding of Caracas, Venezuela and Hugh Breeding of Redwood City, California; and two grandchildren, Tom Higley and Carol Clem Higley of Childress; and

Whereas, It is the desire of the Senate of the State of Texas to pay tribute to this distinguished citizen; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That when the Senate adjourns today, it do so in her memory and that a page in the permanent Journal of the Senate be devoted to the recording of this resolution; and be it further

Resolved, That an enrolled copy of this resolution be sent to each surviving member of Mrs. Amacker's family as a token of our regret and deep sympathy.

The resolution was read and was adopted by a rising vote of the Senate.
